

Garrison Keillor says he will have pacemaker implant at Mayo Clinic

Humorist Garrison Keillor says he plans to go to Mayo Clinic next week for a pacemaker implant.

The 75-year-old former host of “A Prairie Home Companion” told the Minneapolis Star Tribune he was having heart problems and has scheduled an appointment at the Rochester clinic. Keillor called the matter “pretty routine but still serious” and said that “I’m fine.”