

An Ad You Might Be Seeing Soon

By GARRISON KEILLOR

Have you paid thousands for a lovely home in a good neighborhood only to feel unsafe on your own street after dark? Do you hesitate to go places lest irrational persons leap at you from doorways or drop things from tall buildings? And your wife in the grocery store or large bank — should a clerk press against her mumbling pitiful words, is she helpless prey to his tendencies?

No, not when you carry our Self Delivery Emergency Exit Pack. It is reliable, easy to use. Weighs only 45 pounds. Straps on your back. Or carry it like a suitcase.

You'll breathe easy with the Pack on your back. Its exclusive Infrared Sensing

Device knows instantly when somebody is too close for comfort. Alarm sounds and warning lights flash. When you pull cord, Power Rocket inside the Pack lifts you twenty feet per second out of danger. Over housetops for less than $5 per throw! Quick getaway thrust, no complicated controls, no delay mechanism.

Send today for free 30-day trial. We send you Pack plus free booklet, "How To Guard Against Self-Inflicted Harm."
