

■ Minnesota's most famous shy native son, Garrison Keillor, will give the commencement address at his alma mater, Anoka High School, on June 4. Anoka County District Court Administrator Jane Morrow, who is not a close personal friend of Keillor's, made the contact with the shy one. Principal Dean Soutor says, "We are trying to arrange a reception for some of his old teachers. I shouldn't say 'old' — some of the retired staff" that taught Keillor.
