

Garrison Keillor coming in September

SENTINEL STAFF REPORT

If you were thinking of heading off to Lake Wobegon, you won't have to go far.

Just hang around Santa Cruz a little longer, because Garrison Keillor is coming to town.

The writer and radio humorist will not be doing a radio show from here, but will read from his new novel, "Lake Wobegon Summer: 1956," at Cabrillo College on Saturday night, Sept. 22.

While the event is sponsored by Capitola Book Cafe, it's not exactly free (as are most of their author readings).

Instead, you have to buy a copy of Keillor's book at the Book Cafe. Then you receive two tickets to the event along with the book.

Since Keillor will probably sell

Garrison Keillor made Lake Wobegon a star of public radio.

out, you might want to get in early while you can.

The store is located at 1475 41st Ave. in Capitola. For more information, call 462-4415.