

Garrison Keillor sells out

SENTINEL STAFF REPORT

You may have to go to Lake Wobegon to see Garrison Keillor because his Santa Cruz appearance at Cabrillo College on Sept. 22 has sold out.

The Capitola Book Cafe, which is sponsoring the reading by the writer and radio humorist, says that if you're feeling lucky you can arrive at Cabrillo College the night of the signing and wait in a non-ticket holders line.

If ticket holders fail to appear by 7:30 p.m., others will be let in on a first-come basis.

But that approach might not work since the store expects all the tickets holders to show up so that no extra seats will be available, and Cabrillo College allows no standing room access.

For more information, call the store at 462-4415.
