

a state theatre spokeswoman said.

Keillor the preacher

Garrison Keillor's sermon at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco on Sunday had a timely message.

He questioned the truth of the common wisdom that the Sept. 11 events were the end of America's innocence.

He cited the behavior of victims toward each other and the calls they made to their loved ones, affirming their love and telling them to take care of themselves and to have a good life.

"We should accept their benediction," he said.

Keillor appears tonight at San Francisco's Herbst Theatre.