

KEILLOR SINGLES OUT LOCAL FAN

At his show Monday night in Asheville, Garrison Keillor singled out only one local person — Laurey Masterton of Laurey's Catering.

Laurey Masterton

After leading the audience in a prolonged singalong, he announced that everyone would sing one more tune — the theme from Oklahoma. He dedicated the song to Masterton, who apparently had provided dinner for everyone in the band. The crowd cheered as Keillor did the little tribute to a thunderstruck Masterton, one of the gurus of Asheville's culinary community.

Masterton keeps her fingers in many pots. There's her shop, where you can catch a sandwich for lunch, her custom-ordered picnics, including everything from the wine to the homemade bread, and her catered events.

John Fletcher/STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Garrison Keillor, right, performs with musical guest Sam Bush at the Thomas Wolfe Auditorium Monday in Asheville.