

Garrison Keillor comes to Menomonie

May 14 Mabel Tainter performance sponsored by Free Clinic of the Greater Menomonie Area

The Free Clinic of the Greater Menomonie Area invites community members to join the Founder's Club or Century Club today to be eligible for advance ticket purchasing to see Garrison Keillor, writer, radio personality and entertainer.

The Founder's Club requires a donation of $1,500 or more, payable in one-, two-, or three-year increments. Founder's Club members will be recognized on a plaque at the Free Clinic of the Greater Menomonie Area and will receive advanced ticket purchasing for all free clinic events. Membership to the Founder's Club is open through March 2006.

The Century Club requires a donation of $300, payable in $100 installments over three years. Century Club members will receive community recognition for their donation as well as advanced ticket purchasing for all free clinic events. Community members can join the Century Club at any time.

People are reminded that donations to the Free Clinic of the Greater Menomonie Area, Inc. are tax-deductible. Donations can be made with cash or check. Unfortunately, credit cards are not accepted.

sales open to the public. General public ticket sales begin Friday, April 29.

The clinic's mission is to provide access to primary healthcare and preventive health education for the people of western Wisconsin who have no health care alternative. The free clinic, which is temporarily housed on Level A of Red Cedar Medical Center, is open to patients every Tuesday night from 5:15 – 8 p.m. on a first-come, first-served basis. Patients may only walk in; appointments will not be given. Patients should enter level A through Red Cedar Medical Center's southwest entrance.

Anyone can send donations or volunteer inquiries to the following address: Free Clinic of the Greater Menomonie Area, P.O. Box 624, Menomonie, WI 54751. Donations of any amount will be appreciated and are tax deductible.
