Keillor fund-raiser planned in Hutch

A Democratic fund-raiser in Hutchinson featuring an appearance by radio show creator Garrison Keillor could generate as much as $10,000, according to organizers.

The Kansas Democratic Party and the Reno County Democratic Party are co-sponsoring the event that will piggyback on Keillor's trip here to perform his "Prairie Home Companion" on National Public Radio, live from the state fair.

The performance is scheduled for 4:45 p.m. Sept. 10 at the fairgrounds. The evening reception will start around 7:30 p.m. or 8 p.m. and Keillor will arrive at 8:30 p.m.

The reception will take place at the home of Duane and Norma Anstine.

A limited number of reservations are available — about 100, local Democrat Randy McEwen said — and prepaid reservations are required. The charge is $100 per person.
