

WSIU to give away Keillor tickets during member campaign

Garrison Keillor will appear live at Shryock Auditorium on Monday, Oct. 3, to present a lecture entitled "Lake Wobegon Days."

The lecture begins at 7:30 pm and is a University Honors Program event with Shryock Auditorium and WSIU Radio.

Keillor is known as a poet, author, and host of public radio's "A Prairie Home Companion." After the lecture, Keillor will be available for a book signing.

WSIU Radio has a limited number of prime seats available as thank-you gifts during the June member campaign, which is under way now through June 30. The June fundraising drive is critically important to the public radio stations to avoid revenue shortfalls at the end of their fiscal year. Listeners may pledge for a pair of Keillor tickets for $200 (or any quantity desired at $100 per seat).

Tickets will go on sale to the general public in August through Shryock Auditorium.
