

ENTERTAINMENT WEEKEND

Vote, then see Garrison Keillor at the Kirby

Garrison Keillor, the well-known radio personality, storyteller, and humorist brings his wit, anecdotes, and wry observations to the F. M. Kirby Center in Wilkes-Barre for one show Tuesday, Nov. 8, at 7:30 p.m.

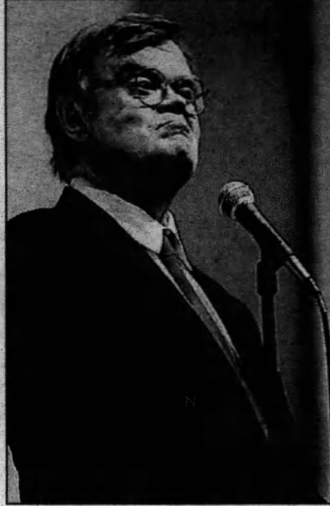

With his gentle voice and unique homespun style of storytelling this American writer can be enjoyed up close in this special, intimate evening accented with the soulful sounds of folk music.

Best known for his National Public Radio show, "A Prairie Home Companion," Keillor reaches more than three million listeners each week on more than 450 stations throughout the country.

With an almost continuous run over the past 31 years, "A Prairie Home Companion" has been adapted for the silver screen with Keillor playing himself. The film features Meryl Streep and Lily Tomlin as the singing Johnson sisters, Lindsay Lohan as Streep's daughter, with Woody Harrelson and John C. Reilly as singing cowboys Lefty and Dusty. Tommy Lee Jones plays the Axeman who is dispatched by the radio station's new corporate owners to shut down the show. An early 2006 release is planned.

In addition to his 40-year distinguished radio career, starting as a freshman at the University of Minnesota, Keillor is the author of 12 books, including "Lake Wobegon Days," "The Book of Guys," "The Old Man Who Loved Cheese," "Wobegon Boy," "Love Me," and "HomeGrown Democrat."

Keillor has received numerous honors throughout his career including a Grammy Award for his recording of "Lake Wobegon Days," as well as the recipient of two ACE Awards presented by the cable television industry, and is a member of the Radio Hall of Fame at the Museum of Broadcast Communications in Chicago.

Tickets for "An Evening with Garrison Keillor" are $55 and $40. They are on sale through the F. M. Kirby Center box office, 826-1100 or Ticketmaster, 693-4100.
