

Times photos by Jason Wachter, jwachter@stcloudtimes.com

Steve Ruprecht of Rockville (right) plays the 1936 song "It's A Sin To Tell A Lie" on his ukulele with harmonizing from Garrison Keillor (left) Sunday during the showcase of Central Minnesota talent at Fisher's Club in Avon.

TALENT SHOWCASE

Times staff report

AVON — A bevy of Central Minnesota talent, introduced by author and entertainer Garrison Keillor, packed the house Sunday at Fisher's Club in Avon.

Keillor, who is one of the 12 owners of the club, was master of ceremonies for the 15 acts that performed before the 220-seat dining room. More fans were seated on the club's lakeside deck.

Keillor joined several of the performances.

The lineup was intended to showcase a variety of local talent and music and included performances by The Pachanga Society, Steve Ruprecht, Alex Willard and Sweet Papa Dave Hart.

Garrison Keillor was the master of ceremonies for the show, which included 15 acts that each performed one or two songs for the capacity crowd.