

Keillor celebrates birthday with shows, corn in Avon

Garrison Keillor (center) serenades dinner guests Monday at Fisher's Club in Avon to celebrate his birthday. The event included a corn feed on the beach and two dinner concerts at which Keillor sang and interacted with guests. TIMES PHOTOS BY JASON WACHTER, JWACHTER@STCLOUDTIMES.COM Find a video of the event at www.sctimes.com.

Times staff report

AVON — Radio personality and author Garrison Keillor celebrated his 69th birthday Monday at Fisher's Club in Avon.

The day started with free corn on the cob that Keillor helped shuck for guests on the beach of Middle Spunk Lake.

Keillor then presented two shows for restaurant diners.

The meals served included Lake Wobegon favorites, such as rhubarb pie or strawberry shortcake.

Keillor became one of the club's owners in 2005.

Keillor talks with fans at a corn feed on the beach before his concerts.