

BRIEFLY

Keillor to present program at SCSU

Garrison Keillor will present an evening of stories and poems at St. Cloud State University's Center Stage in the Performing Arts Center.

The event is at 7 p.m. March 18. The host of "A

Garrison Keillor

Prairie Home Companion," which broadcasts weekly to about 4 million radio listeners, is known for his connection to Central Minnesota by way of his signature monologue, "The News from Lake Wobegon."

The performance will include Rich Dworsky, resident pianist, organist, band leader and music director for "A Prairie Home Companion."

Tickets cost $30, on sale at www.scsutickets.com.

"An Evening with Garrison Keillor: Stories and Poems" is a fundraiser for the Upper Mississippi Harvest literary magazine, which is edited and produced annually by students through the university's Department of English.
