

Public radio personality Garrison Keillor set to perform in Missoula

FOR THE INDEPENDENT RECORD

The news from Lake Wobegon is that Garrison Keillor is planning a third visit to Missoula.

Dennison Theatre Productions and Montana Public Radio will present "An Evening with Garrison Keillor" on Tuesday, March 1, in the Dennison Theatre at the University of Montana.

Tickets are on sale now for the 7:30 p.m. event, which will feature Keillor, the popular radio personality, author, storyteller and humorist who is best known as the creator and host of NPR's "A Prairie Home Companion." He also is a best-selling author of more than a dozen books, including "Lake Wobegon Days," "Love Me" and "Homegrown Democrat."

Following the event, Keillor will hold a book signing at 9 p.m.

Keillor has visited the University of Montana

If you go ...

WHAT: An Evening with Garrison Keillor

WHEN: 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 1

WHERE: Dennison Theatre, University of Montana

COST: $57.75

twice before.

In 2010, he gave a spoken-word performance in the Adams Center, and in 2006, he brought his entire cast of musicians, actors, foleys and producers to the arena for a live broadcast of "A Prairie Home Companion."

Tickets for the March event cost $57.75 and are available at all GrizTix locations, by calling (406) 243-4051 or online at griztix.com. All seating is reserved.

For more information call Tom Webster, Dennison Theatre director, at 406-243-2853 or email thomas.webster@umontana.edu.