"FOUR ON THE FLOOR," a series of free outdoor concerts sponsored by the Guthrie Theater, Walker Art Center and the Minneapolis Parks and Recreation Board's cultural arts department, will begin at 11:15 a.m. Saturday with a performance by Doc Evans' Dixieland band on the brick courtyard outside the Walker-Guthrie main entrance. Upcoming programs will feature "Some Pig," a children's musical production based on E. B. White's book "Charlotte's Web," July 13; the Whole Earth Rainbow Band, July 20, and the Middle Spunk Creek Boys Band, July 27.

HUMORIST GARRISON Keillor will broadcast his Minnesota Educational Radio network program, "A Prairie Home Companion," live from the concert hall in the Janet Wallace Fine Arts Center, Macalester College, from 4:30 to 6 p.m. Saturdays, beginning this week. Seats in the concert hall are available to the public without charge.
