

Middlebury Shows to Be Broadcast

MIDDLEBURY — Two Prairie Home Companion programs that were presented live at Middlebury College in May, 1983, will be broadcast nationally on June 16.

The two performances will be combined into one two-hour program featuring Middlebury College's Dissipated Eight, the Contradance band, Applejack, and Margaret MacArthur and family. Also featured on the program will be regular members of the Prairie Home Companion family, host Garrison Keillor, the Butch Thompson trio and the Stoney Lonesome Bluegrass Band.

The popular program heard each Saturday evening on more than 250 stations of the Americal Public Radio Network is heard locally on Vermont Public Radio, WVRP at 89.5 on the FM dial.

Later this summer the programs recorded at Middlebury will be broadcast over the facilities of the Australian Radio.
