

Garrison Keillor slated at State Theatre benefit

Radio personality and author Garrison Keillor will appear in a benefit performance at the State Theatre, Easton, at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 17. His one-man show will be his first appearance at the State Theatre and will benefit the theater's restoration efforts.

Keillor's appearance was facilitated by WLVT-TV, Channel 39. An interview with him will be taped prior to the performance and aired at a future date on Channel 39.

Keillor is creator and host of A Prairie Home Companion produced by Minnesota Public Radio and heard on American Public Radio.

For information, call 252-3132.