

Make a date with the man from Lake Wobegon

Garrison Keillor . . . see our ticket offer

THE man from Lake Wobegon, Garrison Keillor, will be in London on Saturday to present his popular American radio show. Keillor will be joined by special guests from both sides of the Atlantic, and the Demi Tasse

Orchestra, for two shows at the Royalty Theatre. Guardian readers are offered a special package deal for the second show, at 11pm, which will be broadcast live to the US. Readers can obtain tickets for the best available seats (£17) and a signed copy of Keillor's latest book, We Are Still Married (£11.99) for the combined price of £28.99, with a free glass of wine thrown in! To book, ring The Guardian/First Call 24-hour ticket line on 071-240 5423.