THE REGISTER'S IOWA NEWS SERVICE

Clear Lake, Ia. — All tickets have been sold to a show here by Garrison Keillor. However, fans can hear the show live on a national broadcast from the Surf Ballroom Feb. 15 at 5 p.m.

Public radio KUNI 90.0 FM in Cedar Falls is broadcasting "American Radio Company," a two-hour variety show consisting of music, comic sketches and commentary.

The broadcast will open the show's spring tour of 16 cities. Guests include humorist Bob Elliott, a capella group 14 Karat Soul and Rob Fischer conducting the Coffee Club Orchestra.

The program will include a tribute to Buddy Holly, who gave his last performance at the Surf in 1959.

The show can be heard live on KUNI in eastern Iowa, 98.3 FM in Dubuque, 94.5 FM in the Quad Cities, KUNY 91.5 FM in Mason City and at 91.1 FM on cable radio service in Des Moines.
