Keillor appearance: Palace Theater hosts benefit show

NEW HAVEN — Garrison Keillor, host and creator of National Public Radio's "A Prairie Home Companion" and "American Radio Company," will host "Lake Wobegon Loyalty Days" at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Palace Theater for the Performing Arts.

Keillor is often referred to as a modern-day Mark Twain. Keillor's radio and concert appearances are highlighted by his ability to involve the audience in the show using a special mix of humor, song and nostalgia. Proceeds will benefit Connecticut Public Radio and Orchestra New England.
