

Not a quiet week

As we told you a while back, Lake Wobegon chronicler Garrison Keillor will do a "Prairie Home Companion" performance Saturday in Spartanburg.

Keillor

That show is sold out. But don't despair, Powder Milk Biscuit lovers: He's also doing a show in Spartanburg on Friday. And he'll be in Durham on Monday, Greensboro on Feb. 15, Myrtle Beach on Feb. 16 and Charleston on Feb. 17.

He's not coming to Charlotte, presumably because he's not on Charlotte radio anymore. WFAE (90.7 FM) dropped his (expensive) program when the N.C. General Assembly cut off the station's state funding.
