Garrison Keillor's comic, razor-sharp observations on America and American life have been the hit of "Prairie Home Companion" for seven years and a regular feature in The New Yorker for ten. In that time, his skewed reflections on our lives and times, his ear for dialogue, his humor, and his ability to touch base with home truths have won him an enormous national following.

Meet Garrison Keillor in person at B. Dalton, and have him autograph HAPPY TO BE HERE for you and for everyone on your holiday gift list!
