

Garrison was great

Storyteller Garrison Keillor, who broadcasts A Prairie Home Companion from St. Paul, Minn., charmed a capacity audience at the Akron Civic Theatre Sunday night.

About 2,700, some standees, listened as he read from his latest book, Lake Wobegon Days, quoted poetry and led several songs. John Perry of WKSU and Leonard Will of WCPN emceed. Charles Blair was the organist. Akron Mayor Tom Sawyer, giving Keillor a key to the city, said, "It won't open a damned thing, but it does represent the key to our heart."
