

Garrison Keillor will stop in Iowa City this weekend

IOWA CITY, Iowa – Garrison Keillor, one of public radio's most beloved personalities, will appear at 7:45 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 6, at Clapp Recital Hall at the University of Iowa. The event will be broadcast live on the "Live from Prairie Lights" program on WSUI 910 AM, the UI's public radio station.

WSUI/KSUI is also hosting a fund-raising reception and gala dinner "A Celebration of Public Radio" with Keillor at 5:30 p.m. Tickets are $150 per person or $275 per couple, which includes reception, dinner, tickets to the reading at

Clapp and a copy of "Love Me."

He is visiting Iowa City to celebrate the publication of "Love Me," his newest novel.

Keillor is best known as the host and writer of "A Prairie Home Companion" (broadcast Saturdays at 5 p.m. on KSUI-FM) set in fictional Lake Wobegon, and is also best-selling author of several books.

Tickets to the reading are $10. For tickets call 1-800-426-2437.

To reserve a place at the reception, contact UI Broadcasting Services at 319-335-6205.
