

Keillor brings his friends to South Side

It won't be "A Prairie Home Companion" radio broadcast—not exactly—but Garrison Keillor's Sept. 15 show at the South Side's Gary Comer Youth Center will be "Companion-like," said Tony Judge, a producer for Prairie Home Productions.

Billed as "An Evening with Garrison Keillor and Friends," the show will support the youth center at 7200 S. Ingleside Ave. in Greater Grand Crossing, the childhood home of Lands' End founder Gary Comer, who has spearheaded initiatives to revitalize the neighborhood. Lands' End is a former sponsor of the radio show.

Keillor will be joined by singer Jearlyn Steele and musician Richard Dworsky, as well as the South Shore Drill Team & Performing Arts Ensemble.

Tickets ($35 each) are on sale now. Call 866-604-8683 or visit www.prairiehome.org for more information.

—Robert K. Elder