All tickets sold for Keillor lecture

LINDSBORG — Bethany College is asking ticketholders who can't make it to Garrison Keillor's Nov. 6 lecture to turn them in so that others may attend.

Keillor is host of National Public Radio's "A Prairie Home Companion." His lecture is set for 7:30 p.m. in Presser Hall, and all tickets have been distributed.

Tickets that may go unused may be turned in at Presser Hall.

On the night of the lecture, the front entrance to Presser Hall might be blocked because of construction, so people are asked to enter through the south side door.

For more information, call Beth Warren, coordinator of special events, at (785) 227-3380, ext. 8132.

'Why We Fight' to be shown Friday

The film "Why We Fight" will be shown at 7 p.m. Friday at the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, 901 Beatrice.

A discussion will follow the movie, which is part of the Fourth Friday film series sponsored by church's Social and Justice Committee.

"Why We Fight" is based on President Eisenhower's admonition against the military-industrial complex. It examines the relationship of business contracts and campaign influences.

The public is invited. Donations are welcomed but not required.

The Fourth Friday's film series runs every fourth Friday, except in December.

Free plane rides for youths to be offered

ELLSWORTH — Youngsters ages 8 to 17 can get free plane rides with Smoky Hill Experimental Aircraft Association pilots from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., Nov. 4, at the Ellsworth Airport.

Each youth must have a permission form signed by a parent or guardian. Forms are available from chapter members or can be completed the day of the event at the airport.

No aerobatics or nonstandard maneuvers will be performed during the flights.

For information, call Larry Farmer, 825-1256, or Dale Weinhold, (785) 472-4309.
