

'Prairie Home Companion' to tape Sunday in Madison

Humorist Garrison Keillor will bring his old-time radio variety show, "A Prairie Home Companion" into the Madison High School Auditorium at 8 p.m. Sunday.

The show, which is broadcast on National Public Radio every Saturday at 5 p.m., will be taped for future broadcast.

Joining Keillor will be the Butch Thompson Trio and singer-guitarist Tom Lieberman. Keillor will entertain with tales of the mythical Lake Wobegon, Minn., home of Jack's Auto Repair ("All tracks lead to Jack's") and Powdermilk Biscuits ("in the big blue box").

Tickets are $3.50 for adults and $2 for children and are available at the door. The performance is sponsored by the Community College Arts Association, the South Dakota Arts Council through a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts, and the Affiliated State Arts Agencies of the Upper Midwest.
