

Garrison Keillor, creator of public radio's Prairie Home Companion is scheduled to make his first North Texas appearance in several years on Sept. 13, when he visits the Dallas Convention Center Theater to read from his new book, Lake Wobegon Days.

Keillor will give all the latest news from the mythical Minnesota village "where the women are strong, the men are good looking, and the children are all above average."

Proceeds from the evening will benefit the public radio station. Tickets are $17.50 and can be ordered by writing KERA, 3000 Harry Hines Blvd., Dallas 75201.
