

Prairie Home Companion tickets

Tickets for the Nov. 15 and 16 Honolulu performances of the public radio program Prairie Home Companion go on sale to the general public tomorrow at the Blaisdell Center box office.

The Nov. 16 performance, which will be broadcast nationally, is almost sold out, since members of Hawaii's public radio station, KHPR, were given first crack at the tickets last week.

About half of the tickets to the Nov. 15 show, which will not be broadcast, are still available.

Ticket prices are $12.50 and $15 for the Friday performance, and $15 and $17.50 for the Saturday performance.

Prairie Home Companion, a two-hour music and comedy show hosted by Garrison Keillor, is broadcast Saturday evenings, usually from St. Paul, Minn.

The Blaisdell box office will be closed today — Discoverer's Day — and will reopen at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Telephone ticket purchases by charge card can be made by calling 531-8071.
