

'Barn Storming'

Keillor to visit

Garrison Keillor from "A Prairie Home Companion" will be coming to the Winona as part of his "Barn Storming" tour, according to Mark Peterson of the Winona County Historical Society.

Keillor will visit the Winona County Historical Museum at 11 a.m. Monday, May 8, present a one-hour program, and then talk to the audience and answer questions until 1 p.m.

He'll also be visiting La Crosse, Wis., and Rochester that day.

Tickets are available through the historical society for $5 each. Proceeds will go toward the historical society and Minnesota Public Radio.

Tickets, Peterson said, are going fast as one third have already been claimed. The museum, he said, will accommodate 300 people.
