Keillor to make appearance May 8

"A Prairie Home Companion" host Garrison Keillor has made Winona his second stop in a whirlwind three-day tour of 10 communities.

Keillor, traveling in a small plane, will speak in Winona at 11 a.m. Monday, May 8.

Winona's visit is hosted by KLSE-FM 101.9 and KZSE-FM 107.7.

Keillor will spend two hours at the Winona County Historical Museum, speaking to the public about his small-town creation, Lake Wobegon.

Tickets are $5 and are available through the Winona County Historical Society. Seating is limited to accommodate 300 people.

Those planning to attend should bring their own bag or box lunch.

If weather looks inclement, call KLSE/KZSE offices at (507) 282-800 or the Winona County Historical Society at (507) 454-2723.

His May 8 schedule includes:

From 7-9 a.m., Keillor will appear at the Viterbo College Fine Arts Center lobby in La Crosse, Wis.

From 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., he will appear at the Winona County Historical Society.

From 3-5 p.m., he will be at the Kahler Plaza Ballroom in Rochester, and from 7-9 p.m., he will appear on the Gustavus Adolphus campus in St. Peter.

Keillor has hosted "A Prairie Home Companion" for more than 20 years. The show is now carried on more than 325 public radio stations nationwide with a weekly audience of almost 2 million listeners.

The show can be heard live from 5-7 p.m. Saturday on KLSE-FM 101.9 in Winona and from 6-8 p.m. Sunday on KZSE-FM 107.7 in Winona.
