

Some tickets still available for Keillor's May 9 visit

A few tickets still are available for the upcoming visit of Garrison Keillor to Central Minnesota.

Keillor, author and host of public radio's "A Prairie Home Companion," will speak at 2 p.m. May 9 at Benedicta Arts Center in St. Joseph. His visit is part of a three-day tour of 10 communities in Minnesota.

Keillor began broadcasting at Collegeville in 1969 when KSJR was a single station representing public radio in Minnesota. He began hosting "A Prairie Home Companion," which became one of the nation's most popular radio shows, in 1974.

"I want to tell a couple of Lake Wobegon stories, and I also want to talk about the culture that Lake Wobegon represents and how I feel it represents our area," Keillor said.

"A Prairie Home Companion" is broadcast live from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturdays on KSJR, 90.1-FM, and rebroadcast from 6 to 8 p.m. Sundays on KNSR, 88.9-FM.

Tickets for the May 9 speech cost $5 and are available by calling 612-363-5777.
