

'Prairie Home' Park lottery set

O THE SATURDAY July 5 airing of "A Prairie Home Companion with Garrison Keillor" will broadcast live from Old Faithful to celebrate Yellowstone National Park's 125th birthday. Three-fourths of the 400 seats will be available to the public through a lottery.

A drawing will be held June 10 to determine ticket winners, and winners will be notified by June 17.

- Ticket requests must be received in writing by June 10, with names and addresses.
- Only one ticket request will be accepted per family.
- Tickets are free and non-transferable (they may not be sold).
- Each ticket request is limited to two seats; both names must be submitted.

Ticket requests can be submitted to: A Prairie Home Companion, Yellowstone Public Affairs Office, PO Box 168, Yellowstone National Park, Wyo. 82190.

The program will be broadcast, as always, on Yellowstone Public Radio. Accommodation requests may be made to (307) 344-7311.
