NIACC presents world-class lineup of entertainment

Summary

Performing Arts, Leadership series offer great variety of outstanding performers.

Garrison Keillor, the master storyteller from the Land of 10,000 Lakes and 10 Million Mosquitoes, picks up something for his shows from every community he visits.

He'll have plenty of fodder with North Iowa's musical heritage when he brings "An Evening With Garrison Keillor" here Oct. 12.

He'll learn about how hip and savvy North Iowans are when it comes to their entertainment, and what appreciative audiences they can be.

In fact, North Iowans should be very appreciative of the stellar lineup for this year's Performing Arts and Leadership series at North Iowa Area Community College.

Take a look at today's Preview or visit the Features section on our Web site, and you'll find what an outstanding variety of acts has been booked.

The Performing Arts Series ranges from Debby Boone to Willy Wonka to the opera "Aida" and Broadway shows "Cats," "Rent" and "Jesus Christ Superstar," all spectacular, endearing hits.

There's also the exciting "Stomp," the mystical "Cirque Dreams Jungle Fantasy" and pop sounds of Seals and Seals — Jim Seals of Seals and Crofts and Dan Seals of England Dan & John Ford Coley presenting such hits as "Summer Breeze," "Diamond Girl" and others.

Keillor is part of the Leadership Series that includes "The Real Story Behind the Fake News" and "Guerrilla Marketing."

Can you tell we're enthused? Yes, we're a sponsor, and delighted to be one. But we'd sing the praises of this lineup no matter what or where.

We thank NIACC and the sponsors for bringing this world-class entertainment to the North Iowa Community Auditorium. We can't wait for the curtain to go up.
